3. The United States, defendant Tommie Boddie, defendant Barrett White, and defendant Derrick Eubanks request action by this Court because financial responsibilities relating to the subject vehicles are burdensome, including the storage and maintenance of the vehicles. Moreover permitting the sale of the vehicles now would increase the amount, after satisfaction of obligations, that will be available for forfeiture to the United States upon conviction.

4. Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853, this Court has jurisdiction to enter orders or to take other action to preserve and to protect property to insure that the property or its equity will be available for forfeiture in the event of conviction.

5. Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(e)(1) provides in pertinent part:

Upon application of the United States, the Court may enter a restraining order or injunction, require the execution of a satisfactory performance bond, or take any other action to preserve the availability of property described in subsection (a) of this section for forfeiture under this section -

(A) upon the filing of an indictment or information charging a violation of this subchapter or subchapter II of this chapter for which criminal forfeiture may be ordered under this section and alleging that the property with respect to which the order is sought would, in the event of conviction, be subject to forfeiture under this section.

6. Accordingly, in order to preserve the availability of the equity in the vehicle subject to forfeiture this court shall enter a protective order directing the interlocutory sale of the vehicles by the United States Marshals Service, and that the proceeds from the sale, after payment of certain verifiable costs, be retained in an escrow account maintained by the United States Marshals Service, pending further order of this Court.

7. Further, that to the extent the United States Marshals Service incurs certain costs, the United States Marshals Service shall be permitted to deduct from the proceeds of the sale of the vehicle, any reasonable and necessary costs incurred to effectuate the sale of the vehicle and costs incurred to maintain the vehicle, if any, pending sale.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

(a) That, the agreed motion for entry of a protective order allowing the interlocutory sale of:
